

The Daily Round-Up

FROM OFFICIAL RECORDS

MARRIAGE LICENSES

FLACK - EISENMENGER — James M. Flack, New Haven, Conn., and Hertha E. Eisenmanger, 159 Lorraine Avenue.

THE DAILY ARGUS, MOUNT VERNON, N. Y.,
FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1941

MISS HERTHA EISENMENGER will be married tomorrow in the garden of her mother's home at 159 Lorraine Avenue, to James M. Flack, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Flack of Crosby, Miss.

Local Resident Plans Wedding

Miss Eisenmenger To Be Married In Garden

Miss Hertha E. Eisenmenger, of New Haven, Conn., daughter of Mrs. Ernst Weber of 159 Lorraine Avenue, is being married tomorrow in the garden of her mother's home, to James M. Flack, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Flack of Crosby, Miss.

The ceremony will be performed at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. Kermit Gregory, a schoolmate of the bridegroom, and a reception will follow. The bride will be given in marriage by Mr. Weber and will have her sister, Mrs. Peter Neelsen of this city as matron of honor. Mr. Flack's best man will be B. M. Ferriss. Organ music for the wedding will be played by Stanley Forbes.

After a wedding trip to Connecticut, the couple will live in New Haven.